1964 — Maryland State College — 1965
Princess Anne, Maryland

Dedication

To a lady whose inward beauty shines forth in warmth and grace;

To a gentle woman of sincerity, sympathy, and humor;

To a servant of Maryland State College who has never worked to serve her private goals, who has ever been faithful in action and clear in honor;

To a friend whose love for Maryland State College and its students has been exemplified in years of selfless devotion to our common welfare, a friend who has never refused a request for help and, time after time, has gone beyond duty's call in service to all;

To a real lady and friend, we dedicate this issue of THE HAWK to

MRS. INA Q. STEELE

An efficient day's work at the office

A gift for the deserving Lady of The Year of 1964.

An evening of music by Count Basie can be very relaxing

Mrs. Ina Q. Steele among the firm believers, "We shall over come."

PRESIDENT JOHN TAYLOR WILLIAMS

A man of unshaken faith and the courage to bring a vision into reality.

Foreword

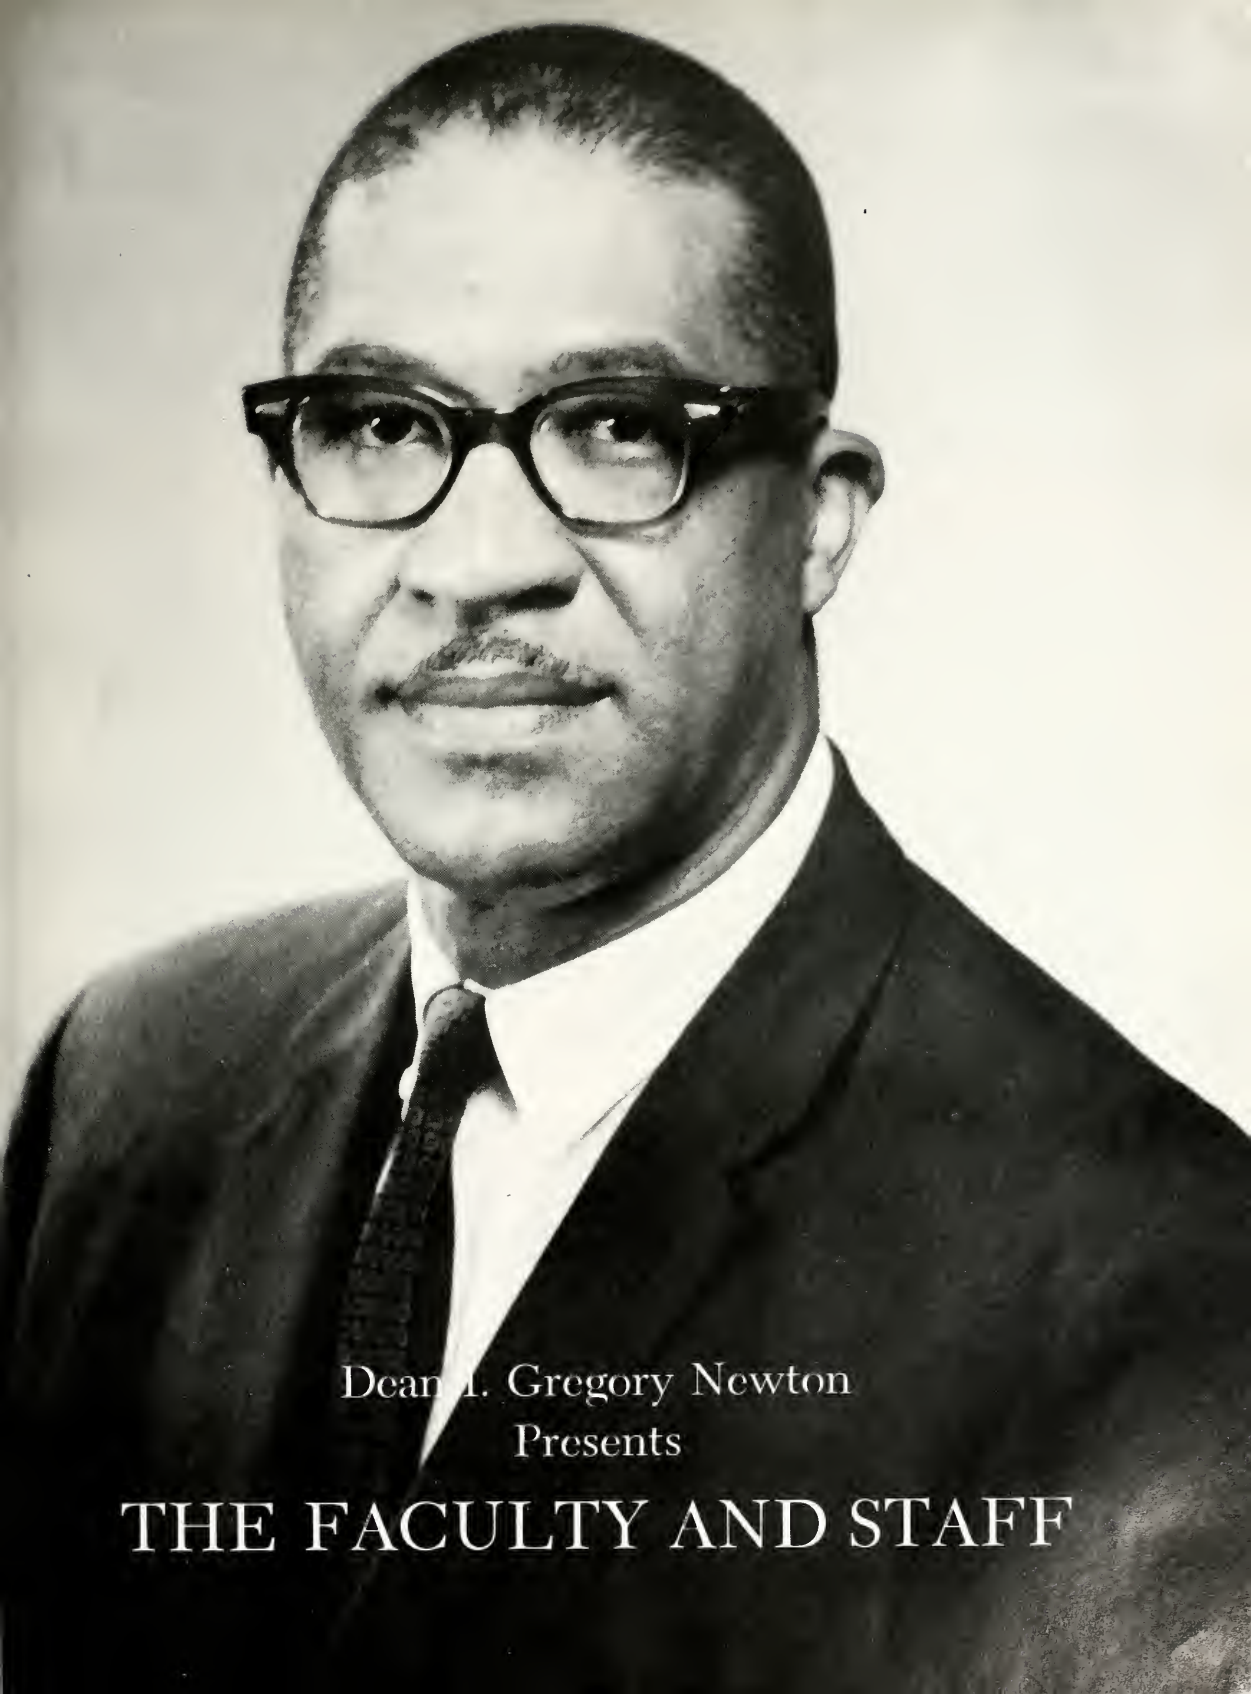

The 1965 HAWK has been published primarily to provide those of the Maryland State College Community with a pictorial record of the persons and events that pervaded our campus during the 1964-65 school year. We are well aware of the many intangibles that often give added color to activities, environs, and personalities but somehow defy recording in black and white. Nevertheless, we hope that our endeavors may, in some small way, help preserve friendships and associations which we all hold so dearly. If this book will serve to bridge the past and bring to mind the priceless memories of joy and pleasures of the past year, it will have served its purpose.

There are those without whose efforts and contributions, the 1965 HAWK would not have been possible. The staff would like to thank all of you.

MARYLAND STATE COLLEGE ALMA MATER

Words and Music by Daniel L. Rideout, Sr.

To thee, dear Alma Mater,
We raise our grateful song.
Thou, through thy noble teachings
Hast made thy children strong;
And thousands still shall praise thee,
All earth shall hear their swell,
And bind our hearts yet closer,
To thee we love so well.

We love thy spacious campus,
We love thy tow'ring halls.
And hallow'd are the lessons
We've learn'd within thy walls.
Stand thou forever glorious,
Full rob'd in living green;
Shine thou in endless splendor
Beneath thy trees serene.

Refrain

Maryland, Maryland, home of Maroon and Gray
Maryland, Maryland, thee we will love away.
All hail to thee, fair Maryland,
All glory be to thee!
Grow thou in strength and honor
Through all eternity!

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges

Who's who in American Universities and College honors primarily, the youth of today's colleges and universities, supporting the theory that any job well done deserves praise. Each overt form of recognition provides encouragement and helps in securing a firm hold on the first rung of his ladder to success. Thus, it need not necessarily take a lifetime to reach the top of this all important ladder.

Coppin State College

For the past 2 years Maryland State College and Coppin State College have had cultural exchange programs in the spring. Students from M.S.C. present a program at an assembly at Coppin, featuring the choir, dance and dramatics groups. A similar presentation is given at M.S.C. by students from Coppin State. This kind of educational exchange tends to stimulate greater interest in the arts at both institutions.

Plans are underway to expand the program to include more of the colleges in the vicinity.

There is music even in the beauty, and the silent note which Cupid strikes, far sweeter than the sound of an instrument; for there is a music wherever there is a harmony, order, or proportion; and thus far we may maintain the music of the spheres.

The 17th Annual Design For Living Week

MARYLAND STATE COLLEGE
Princess Anne, Maryland

March 14, 15, 16, 17, 1965

THEME: "THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE COLLEGE IN A CHANGING SOCIAL ORDER"

WHAT IS "DESIGN FOR LIVING WEEK"?

The religious freedom that is ours gives to American students the privilege of examining the basic tenets of their religious faith. For the past 17 years Maryland State College has set aside a week during which students may give special attention to their religious heritage. Thus each year on the campus, a week is designated and opportunities are given for students and faculty to think through and share their religious convictions. Under the direction of outstanding leadership, it is our purpose to re-examine the convictions to various phases of our common campus life.

OBJECTIVES

1. To encourage campus-wide thought and action within the framework of a religious approach to life.
2. To foster more interest and better understanding among faculty and students of the importance of religion and religious values in higher education.
3. To emphasize the role of Christian Service—Its appeal, demand, and challenge in the unification of a divided world.
4. To strengthen the foundations of the Eternal Verities in our lives so that we may become more unified in thought, purpose, understanding, and right action for the good of all mankind.

Design For Living Week Speakers

Rev. Robert T. Newbold, Jr., Pastor of Grace United Presbyterian Church, Baltimore, Maryland.

Rev. Robert R. Johnson, Chairman of Committee on Church Extension and Home Missions of the New York City Congregational Church Association.

Rev. H. Alexander Baron, Pastor of the Nazarene Congregational Church of Brooklyn, New York.
